CITY AFFAIRS.

Anhuser-Busch.
NEW HAVEN, December 13, 1889.

The Anhuser-Busch Brewing Association,
11, Louis, Mo.

Gentlemen—The sample of Faust Beer lately received from you for analysis has in 100 parts by weight the following composition:

Total solid extract..... 6.890
Alcohol..... 3.790
Carbonic acid gas..... 235
Water..... 89.375

Systematic search has failed to show the presence of any adulterant, and the composition is very similar to that of the best beer of Munich and Vienna. Yours, etc.,

S. W. JONES, Professor of Chemistry, Yale College.

Washington Branch:
First street and Virginia avenue southwest.

FIANK SCHWARTZ, Manager.

Fair Dealing, Fair Terms and a Good Article is John Rudden's Motto.

He sells for cash, but scarcity of money need not deprive any of home comforts. A small cash payment as an evidence of good faith is all that is required at first, and future payments can be made monthly, weekly, or on first payment. Goods delivered on first payment. This is the plan pursued by the fair dealer, and the same course will be continued at the Cash and Credit stores of John Rudden, 308 and 310 Seventh street northwest. Give him a call.

The Latest Wonder.

Thompson's Wine Parlor. The phonograph sings, and repeats all the latest songs and sayings. The original Melodion, by Mr. Firm, a concert within itself. A full band every night. Shaffer and Blackley's latest success, "The Nigger and the Bee," etc. Professor Wall's latest success on the banjo. 415 Thirteenth street northwest.

Houghton & Co.'s Spring Specialties.

This firm is in receipt of many specialties in the newest styles of spring goods. Their stock is complete in all the latest styles of furniture, upholstery, decorations and an unlimited assortment of noble specialties. This prominent business house is centrally located at 118 and 120 F street northwest, and keeps in stock the same class of goods that can be found in any first-class store in New York. The accommodations are far superior and the price of the goods are the same. All good efforts desire to build up their beautiful capital city will certainly patronize the local merchants, especially this liberal and fair-dealing firm.

Spring Lamb.

For spring lamb and Washington dressed, let go to J. R. Kelly, Ninth street west, Centre Market, and S. L. Market, Fifth and K streets.

For Washington Dressed Beef

go to John B. Kelly, stalls 628, 629 and 630 Centre Market, and 308 and 310 Northern Liberty. Corned beef a specialty.

FAST AND ELEGANT.

A Special Train on the Pennsylvania Road That is a Pleasant Memory.

There has been considerable complimentary mention of the special train of Pullman vestibule parlor cars over the Pennsylvania Railway, which conveyed a private party to the launch of the United States ship Newark, at Cramp's shipyard, Philadelphia, on Wednesday.

This train left the Sixth Street Station at 7:30 a. m., and reached Broad Street Station, Philadelphia, at 11 o'clock. Carriages conveyed the guests to and from the ship yard, and the return trip was made in the same time as going, the train reaching here at 8:25 p. m.

An elaborate lunch was served on the train both going and coming, and the menu card contained all the delicacies of the season. All who were so fortunate as to participate speak in the highest terms of the train, and the service rendered by the officials of the railway company.

She is a Hardened Thief.

An old offender in the person of Nannie Graham, colored, occupied the dock in the Police Court yesterday afternoon. She has a record as a thief, and this time it was charged that early in February she stole $16 worth of clothing from the house of Dr. Byng, in Georgetown, and about the same time carried away $25 worth of clothes belonging to Wilson N. Fuller. It was only a short time ago that Nannie finished up a sentence, and she seemed very indifferent when Judge Miller said she could go to jail for three months, and in addition be held her in $300 bail for the grand jury.

It was an Experience Meeting.

Hon. William E. Mason of Chicago presided last night at the dinner of the Six o'Clock Club at Willard's. The subject for discussion was, "On what subject do your friends consider you a crank?" Among those who took part were Hon. Horatio King, General Mussey, Dr. Ingram, Mrs. Florence Huntley, Hon. Mr. Stockdale, Colonel W. B. Thompson, J. L. McCarty, W. A. Croft, Hon. Mr. Stockdale of Mississippi, E. T. Peters, Mrs. Sara Spencer, C. B. Hemingway and Major McElroy.

Change of Pastors.

The Eastern Presbyterian Church was filled last night, on the occasion of the election of a pastor to succeed the Rev. Dr. Noble, who had resigned. Rev. M. N. Cornelius of Howard Presbyterian Church, San Francisco, Cal., was unanimously chosen to fill the vacancy. The record of Mr. Cornelius as a worker is an excellent one, and largely through his efforts a $50,000 church was erected on land worth as much more.

Golden Cross Knights Entertain.

The East Washington Branch of the United Order of the Golden Cross gave a largely-attended entertainment last night at Washington Hall, corner of Third street and Pennsylvania avenue southeast.

Reduced to the Banks.

Assistant Foreman Rudolph Ball of No. 2 engine company has been reduced to the rank of private, and Private J. B. Clark of the same company has been appointed assistant foreman in his stead.

Cut His Wife's Throat.

John Brown, a colored man residing on Market street near M. West Washington, cut his wife last night at the throat, inflicting a painful but not fatal injury. He eluded arrest.

Died in a Fit.

William Harris, an aged colored man, a sufferer from heart disease, fell in a fit in the O Street Market yesterday afternoon, and died while being taken in a patrol wagon to his home.

Young Medico Dies.

The Collation of the Medical and Dental faculties of the Columbian University to the members of the graduating class was partaken of last night at Jackson's cafe, Connecticut avenue.

French Unquestionably the Easiest Lesson.

Six weeks' course of conversation. Least and most talented for languages now equally favored. Four cardinal laws, but one fundamental principle. Teaching reduced to a science. See announcements.

TO AID YOUNG WOMEN.

Entertainment in Behalf of One of Our Most Charitable Institutions.

The lady board of directors of the Young Woman's Christian Home has completed arrangements for a literary and musical entertainment, to be given at 404 Sixth street northwest, Thursday evening, March 27, in which some of the best talent in the city will take part. The Home has been moved from its old location on C street into more commodious quarters at 404 Sixth street northwest, where ample facilities will be afforded those in charge in carrying out their benevolent work. This institution has no connection with the Woman's Christian Association.

The Young Woman's Christian Home, of which Miss Anna A. Shells, larger is president, was chartered by Congress in February, 1887, for the purpose of providing a temporary home for young women of good moral character, who may be in need of such assistance. A register is kept at the Home of those in need of employment and employers, of which persons who have occasion to employ young women in any capacity are requested to avail themselves.

The entertainment will be given for the purpose of raising funds to defray the expenses incidental to the change in location, and also to aid them in fitting up their new house in a more comfortable and home-like abode for the temporary inmates. Some of our most prominent ladies are interesting themselves in the coming entertainment, and in that connection will be a successful and well patronized affair.

KNIGHTS OF THE RACQUET.

Annual Meeting of the Southern Lawn Tennis Association.

The regular annual meeting of the Southern Lawn Tennis Association was held at the Livingstone, on Thirteenth street, Charles M. McCawley, president of the Columbia Athletic Club, presiding.

The clubs represented at the meeting were: Bachelor Club, by T. P. Borden and Henry W. Spofford; Columbia Athletic Club, E. A. Bowers; New Jersey Avenue Club, Dayton Ward; Tudor Place Club, B. Kennon Peter; Cricket Club of Baltimore, A. H. S. Post; Johns Hopkins University Club, A. L. Brown; Wilmington (Del.) Field Club, J. E. Smith. The Racquet Club of this city was admitted to membership, with R. B. Brown as its representative. Other tennis players present were: Woodward, Samuel Steinmetz, Orris Brown, John Davidson, Henry E. Oids, Colonel M. A. Tappan and F. W. Janssen. The latter represented the sporting house of A. G. Spalding. He submitted a new ball for adoption.

Officers were elected as follows: President, Charles M. McCawley; vice-president, A. H. S. Post; secretary and treasurer, H. W. Spofford; executive committee, A. L. Brown, G. E. Smith, Dayton Ward, W. G. Peter, the latter of Tudor Place Cricket Club of this city. It was decided to hold the tournament in Baltimore at Mount Washington, beginning June 3. The Weight & Ditch regulation ball was adopted.

JUMPED HIS BAIL.

Circumstances seem to be Against Ex-Correspondent Lingen.

The information now comes from Detroit that McCubbin Lingen, the former representative of the Bachelor Syndicate in Washington, jumped his bail of $500. It will be remembered that he was arrested here about a month ago and taken to Detroit, charged with the larceny of a pair of marine glasses and a Parker shot-gun from the yacht Ramona. There was more or less sympathy for Lingen among the Washington newspaper men, but this forfeiture of his bail makes it look as if he were guilty and not disposed to stand trial.

The Ruling Passion.

St. Peter to newly arrived spirit—Madam, you will have no need of that seal skin sash in this summer land.

Mrs. De Fashion—Oh, let me wear it, please. Never mind if I do nearly roast. I'm used to that.

Free Exhibition of Paintings.

The public are invited to inspect the collection of magnificent pictures of scenery in the Rocky and Selkirk Mountains, now on free exhibition in the reception room at Willard's Hotel.

HE EARNED A DOLLAR.

What Singer Klein Told Morrissey—The First English Victory.

From the New York Star.
Alfred Klein, who made a hit as Polk in McCaull's revival of "Palka" a few seasons ago, is an Englishman by birth, and about fifteen years ago was a wandering street singer. He drifted to Saratoga, where his really good voice, together with his spirit of manly independence, secured for him favors not usually accorded others in his line. While Klein was in Saratoga the Ren-ford rowing crew came from England and were defeated on Saratoga Lake by the famous Ward brothers.

This roused the English blood in Klein and he issued a challenge, which resulted in a race in mud scows across the Narrows at Saratoga Lake between some boys for a silver cup bought by local sportsmen. Klein won the race and was very proud of his victory. He claimed that his trophy was the first cup ever won on American waters by an Englishman.

There were plenty of sporting men who were amused by the boy's talk, and particularly so by his opinion of Tom Sayers, the English pugilist. One day Klein expressed himself rather forcibly about John Morrissey as a fighter, and his hearers said that he would not dare talk in that strain to Morrissey's face. Klein said he would, and to prove it the entire party went to Morrissey's house, a few blocks away. While Klein went to the door, the sports waited near by for the outcome. Mr. Morrissey came to the door and looked down in surprise at the boy. "Well, my little man, what can I do for you?" he asked.

"Mr. Morrissey," said Klein, "I was talking with some men down here and I said I thought Tom Sayers was a better man than you. They said I did not dare tell you so. Now, Mr. Morrissey, I think you are a pretty good man, but I do think Tom Sayers could lick you."

Morrissey laughed outright, gave Klein a dollar and was the latter's friend ever after.

From the Jackson's Weekly.

Diamond Cutter (to farmer applying for an apprenticeship for his son)—I fear, sir, that the lad has not been so educated as to adapt him to my business. What does he know of facets and carats?

Proud Father—Facets an' carots! Gosh! Say, mister, afore that kid was 2 years old, he could work the fastest on the older bar! an' he ain't n'uch else but carrots all his life.
